Why PGDM BFS & I ?

NSDC-KPMG report says the BFSI sector will recruit over 1.01 million additional employees during 2017-22. Another KPMG-CII report states that the banking industry in India has the potential to become 5th largest in the world by 2020 and 3rd largest by 2025.

Technological innovations such as ATMs, internet banking, payment gateways, and UPI along with government policy initiatives like banking sector reforms, have brought about a dramatic change in the way the BFS & I industry operates. This change demands working professionals who are future-ready and equipped with industry-focused skill-sets

Completing the PGDM in Banking & Financial Services programme can put you on a career path in leading private banks, NBFCs, mutual funds, life and general insurance companies, capital market companies etc.
